

There is no reason why XM should be prevented from broadcasting wheather and traffic. If I have cable or satellite TV I get the wheather channel in addition to my local news wheather. XM should be able to offer me the same choice via radio. Let me decide when to listen to my local radio traffic and wheather and when to listen to XM traffic and wheather. This is what healthy competition is about.